The final rounds of Chidon Ha'tanach, the International Bible Quiz, will be held in Jerusalem on Yom Ha'atzma'ut, and The Jewish Agency invites you to take part!

Q: Who is invited to participate in the Chidon Ha'tanach International Bible Quiz?

A: Jewish youth, aged 14-18, from anywhere in the world

Q: How does the process work?

A: There will be preliminary tests and quiz-rounds held in your country; those who qualify will meet in Israel for the next rounds. The finalists will compete on Yom Ha'atzma'ut in a live, televised contest.

Q: In which city, important to both biblical and modern-day Israel, will the Bible Quiz take place?

A: Jerusalem

Q: On what modern-day Israeli festival will the Quiz be held?

A: Yom Ha'atzma'ut - The Bible Quiz is central to the culture in Israel on its Independence Day.

Q: What is the coolest part of this event?

A: You will meet some important people like the Prime Minister and President of the State of Israel.

Q: How long will finalists spend in Israel?

A: About 2  $\frac{1}{2}$  weeks

Q: What else is part of the program?

- A:
1. Travel around Israel, and visit the very places you have learned about, historical sites in modern Israel, and fun places too—like a hike in the hills of Jerusalem!
  2. Meet Israeli soldiers and tour army bases
  3. Meet important people in Israeli politics
  4. Make friends from all over the world and with your Israeli peers
  5. Be broadcast live on Israeli national television
  6. All of the above

Q: Who pays for all of this?

A: Once finalists arrive in Israel, all expenses are covered.

Q: Where can you sign up?

A: Send an email to chidon@jafi.org or take a look at our website for more details:
